It may not be of sufficient importance to keep Boehling out of the line-up when his chief decides to use him, but the next time out the southpaw will be forced to labor under the handicap.

Today was the bottest the Griffmen bave experienced aince reporting at Charlottesville. At the ball park the men suffered not a little from conditions, so the practice was out somewhat shorter than usual, although every player had all the batting practice that Griffith hought was necessary.

The Frederick (Md), club has written to headquarters for a game in that place. As yet no decision has been received, but of Griffith can find a suitable date he may accommodate the Marylanders, who are reputed to have a strong team.
